DETAILED ACTION

This application is a divisional of application 08/311,157, filed September 23, 1994, now US Patent 5,871,986.

Claims 1, 27-36 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(g)(1) during the course of an interference conducted under section 135 or section 291, another inventor involved therein establishes, to the extent permitted in section 104, that before such person's invention thereof the invention was made by such other inventor and not abandoned, suppressed, or concealed, or (2) before such person's invention thereof, the invention was made in this country by another inventor who had not abandoned, suppressed, or concealed it. In determining priority of invention under this subsection, there shall be considered not only the respective dates of conception and reduction to practice of the invention, but also the reasonable diligence of one who was first to conceive and last to reduce to practice, from a time prior to conception by the other.

The rejection of claims 1, 27-36 based upon the Interference No. 104570, to which applicant is a party, is withdrawn.

Upon review of the outcome of the interference, the rejection is withdrawn.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 27-36 stand rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 5,871,986 for the reasons of record as set forth in the office action mailed December 29, 2000. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

Applicant's willingness to file a terminal disclaimer is noted (see amendment filed June 29, 2001, page 12). However, the rejection can not be held in abeyance. The rejection is maintained for the reasons of record.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.

The claims are free of the art of record because the use of a baculovirus vector in a mammalian cell was not taught. Though baculovirus vectors were known at the time of filing, there use was limited to use in insect cells. At the time of filing there was no specific motivation or expectation that vectors used to express a gene of interest in insect cells could be used in mammalian cells as instantly claimed. In addition to the evidence provided in the instant application, the post filing art has demonstrated the successful use of baculovirus vectors in a variety of specific methods including gene therapy protocols in mammals (see for example US Patent 6,183,752-claims 2, 12, 13 and 14).
